Hi ladies, my name is Wo-Hen Nankan. Welcome to my site. You can check out my stats on my Asian Avenue Site. I am searching for a girlfriend. The picture on the left is me. Aren't I very sexy? My AIM screen name is AsianPrince213. I hope you will be my inspiration for my next hit song! Also, don't forget to sign my guestbook!

This is my picture gallery. These pictures range from my early days as a singer to present time. I hope you enjoy the photos and learn more about me!

The picture above is of me when I first came to America. As you can see, I am very wealthy because this shirt is 100% real tiger fur. This is one of my cheap shirts, but it still cost me $950. Money isn't an issue for me, so I will spoil and pamper you.

To your left is a photo of me when I shaved my mustache. This was in the early ninties. After a year of no mustache, I decided that it wasn't for me. Having no mustache made me feel less of a man.

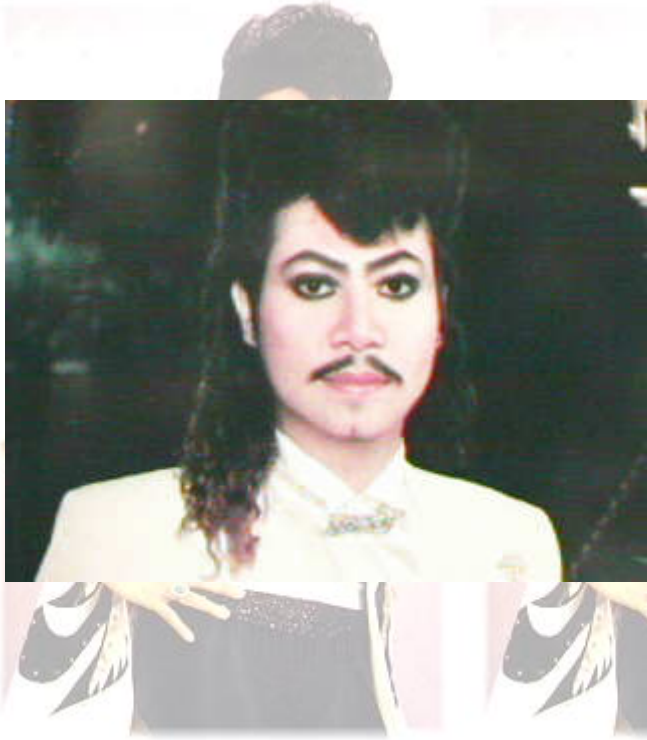

This is another early photo of me. It was taken during one of my many sold out concerts in Asia. Again, money isn't an issue, because I had this suit custom made in Italy and I've only worn it once. Look at how thick and full my hair is. When I become older, I guarantee you that I won't become bald and wrinkly.

As you can see from the first photo, my favorite artist is Little Richard. My absolute favorite color is light purple and I am very intelligent. I live in Los Angeles, California, but if you live somewhere else, it's ok, because I have a private jet.

People are always complimenting my hair. They say to me, "Nice mullet!" or "I really like your mullet, who's your barber?" At first, I was confused at this statement. I didn't know what a mullet was. I found out after asking my girlfriend at that time. Here's the story of how I got my hairstyle. When I first came to America, I lived in the South for five months. I lived in Alabama. All of the caucasian men had this hair style that was short on the top, and then long at the back. Trying to fit in, I decided to copy this style. Having this hair style is both practical and stylish. It is practical because it protects the back of my neck from the sun. It is stylish because people are always complimenting it.

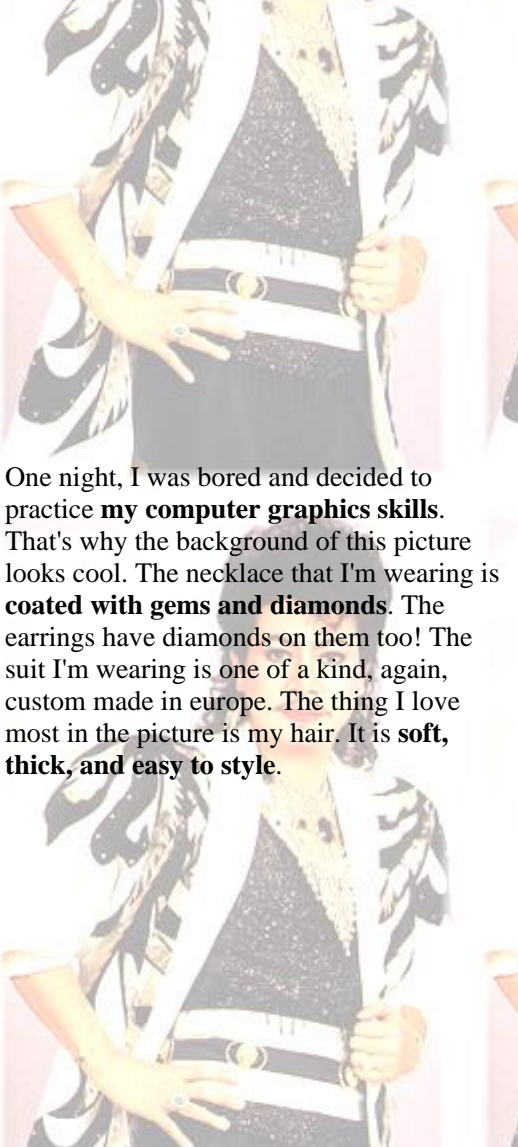

Here are more pictures of me. All of my clothes are custom made by designers from Europe. The one on the left was taken while I was at a concert. Sorry for the quality, this picture was a polaroid. The one on the right was one of my first modeling shoots. Look at all the gold that I am wearing! Don't be fooled by the rings that I am wearing, I was never married!

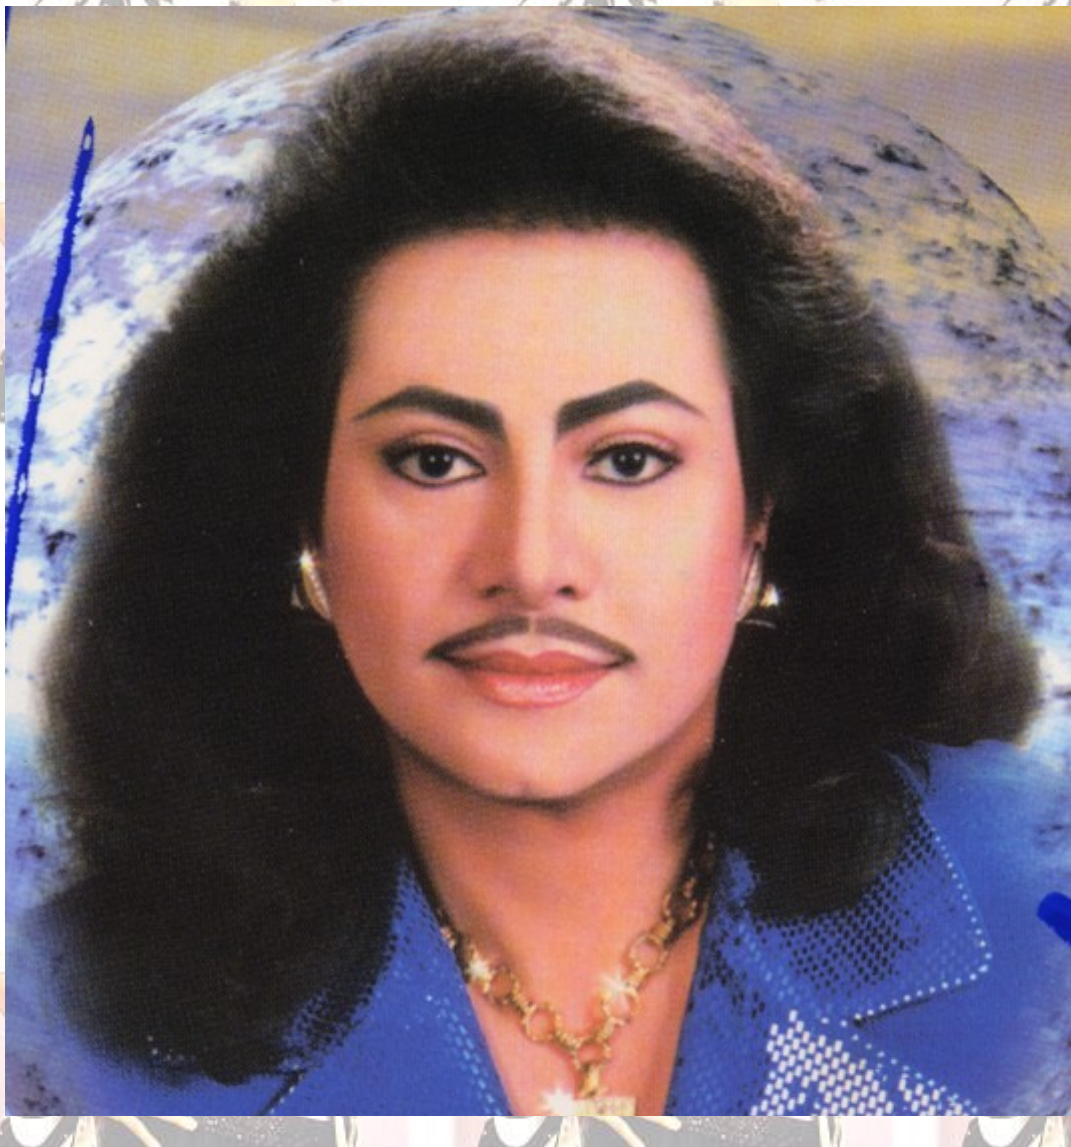

This photo was taken during a photo shoot. The jewelry that I'm wearing is all mine. You can see that I'm wearing the same jewelry as the photo above! I do not smoke; the cigarette was used for effect. I don't mind if you're a smoker. The suit that I'm wearing is genuine silk. As you can see from the picture, I am very sexy. My lovely friend Sherry says she loves me! She loves the type of guys that look like me.

One night, I was bored and decided to practice my computer graphics skills. That's why the background of this picture looks cool. The necklace that I'm wearing is coated with gems and diamonds. The earrings have diamonds on them too! The suit I'm wearing is one of a kind, again, custom made in europe. The thing I love most in the picture is my hair. It is soft, thick, and easy to style.

This is my license. The picture on it was taken about one year ago. My hair is pulled back in a pony tail because I didn't have the time to style my thick, soft hair. I de-interlaced the photo and enhanced it for your viewing pleasure. What inspired me to show you my license? Here's the story. I was cruising the city in my BMW Z3. My inner-bad boy kicked in, so I started to speed. I got pulled over by a cop, which happend to be a female. When she saw me, her whole face lit (as with all the women that lay their lovely eyes on me). She asked for my license and registration. When she saw my license, she gave me a sexy smile. That's what inspired me to show my license.

I'm giving a smile to all the women out there! Since I don't smoke, my teeth are pearly white. I decorated the picture myself. Of course, the gold earrings and necklace are mine, but if you were my princess, they'd be yours too! That shirt I'm wearing is very expensive, because it is 100% silk, with intricate embroidery, custom made for me. From this picture alone, you can ascertain that I have excellent hygeine. My face is flawless. People tell me my eyes are very sexy. Also, they are always making eye contact with me. It is very flattering. Even men do it, but sorry guys, I'm not gay! I guess my eyes just have some kind of mystique attribute.

Since I have lots of vehicles, I had to split up this section into two. Learn more about my sexy vans or my fast cars.

Whenever I go out on dates, I always have to choose which car to take. This is very difficult, since I have many to choose from. Hopefully, you'll be sitting next to me, while we're cruising the city!

Hello Ladies...

The competition is heating up! This is a gallery of the women who are interested in me! Send me more, and I'll post them! If you wish to remain anonymous, then tell me, and I will not post your picture. Due to the number of pictures I have received, I have split this section into two. One is of women interested in me and the other of possibly gay men.

NOTE: These are pictures that people send to me. I post them if the picture is of adequate size and quality.

I am not gay, so guys, don't bother sending in your picture. As a punishment for thinking I'm gay, I posted a picture of this man, named Dustin. He is in the Possibly Gay Men section. If you ever seen him, now you know he's gay! Don't send in pictures if you're a guy, or you'll face the same punishment as him!

Hello Ladies...

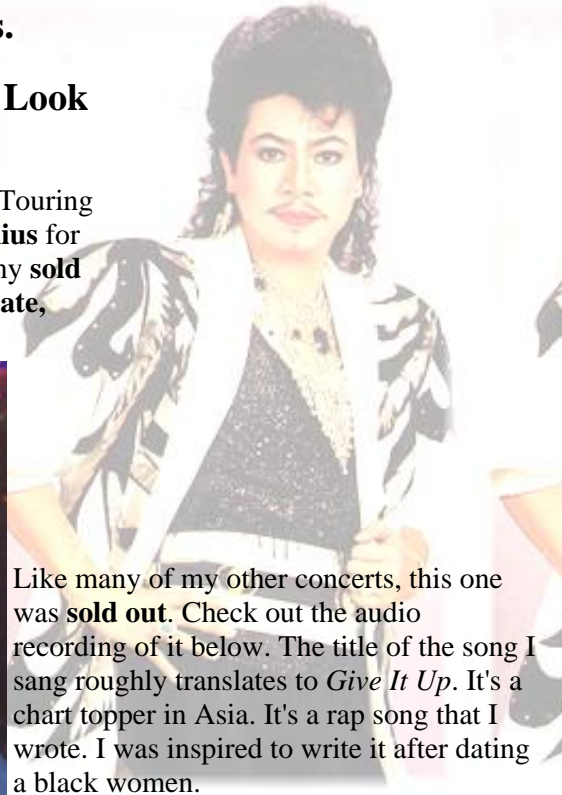

I love to sing. It's where I get the money to purchase my vehicles.

Like my music? You can buy it at various import music stores! Look for the artist Tuan Anh!

Since I am considered by many, a genius, I know how to sing in different languages. Touring throughout Asia, I've self taught myself each language. I've been called a musical genius for both my writing style and talent. I am also called a marketing genius because of all my sold out concerts. I am a man who is smart, funny, romantic, charming, compassionate, talented, sexy, and has an excellent sense of style. Am I not hot?

Like many of my other concerts, this one was sold out. Check out the audio recording of it below. The title of the song I sang roughly translates to Give It Up. It's a chart topper in Asia. It's a rap song that I wrote. I was inspired to write it after dating a black women.

I really know how to work up a crowd. This is yet again, another sold out concert. I was bored, so I decorated the picture with computer graphics. There is no live recording of this concert, but you can play the song I sang. The song is untitled. I really like the reggae beat, don't you?

In a fit of anger, I just started to freestyle on the mic. I was angry because I had a bad hair day, which is extremely rare. My hair wasn't being fluffy, like how it usually is. I went into my home studio, hit the record button, and started to freestyle. Afterwards, I decided to add a beat to the recording. Also, sorry for the angry tone in my voice.

Welcome to my bad boy life section.

This section tells about moments when my inner bad boy kicked in. Sometimes, I like to live life dangerously. Some princesses are attracted to bad boy rebels. I can be one at times. They will find me irresistible after viewing this section.

I think I look like a bad ass in this picture. This is a picture of me in my early career. As you can see, I have been sexy all my life. Although I may look sweet and innocent now, there were times when I looked like a bad ass. The outfit that I'm wearing in this picture is 100% silk. The shoes are made from soft Italian leather. I think I should become a model, don't you?

This is a picture of my 2000 Honda Civic EX. I bought this car for fun, on impulse, since I am very rich. I was going to get a 2000 Honda Civic SI, but there was one problem. It is a little difficult to get into the backseat. In this car, it's easier for me and a girl(s) to get into the backseat. I bought this because I wanted to practice modifying cars. As well as being an excellent lover, I am also excellent with cars. I was going to modify this car all by myself, since I am good with my hands.

Wow! What happened here? I wanted to test the limits of this car. Since I sometimes live life dangerously, I decided to go really fast in the city. Some people like to call me, "one bad mother." I don't understand what that's supposed to mean, but it makes me sound like a bad ass. As I was driving, a car hit me from the side. I didn't get hurt because I am tough and strong. Since I have lots of money, this car isn't much of a loss for me.

Why am I such a good lover? Here's one of the many reasons. Since I am very good with my hands, I am able to vibrate them. When I go out to clubs and show the ladies that I can vibrate my hands, they go crazy! Here's an audio recording of me vibrating my hands. I'm holding a 100% real gold pen and vibrating it against my custom made solid mahogany desk. Since I am strong, I dented the pen while vibrating it against my desk. Even though it's a gold pen, it is not much of a loss for me.

This is a picture of me the morning after having a date with a possible princess named Dianne. She told me that shaving my eyebrows made me look even more sexier and "bad ass" than I already am. Here's the story of how it all happend:

After cruising the city in my black 2001 Mercedes SLK 320 with Dianne, I took her to my place. Of course all she wanted to do is go to my large bedroom, since I am hot and charming. She headed for my bedroom as I took out a bottle of Louis Jadot Puligny-Montrachet from my extensive fine wine collection. I poured some in two crystal wine glasses. Since I am so sexy, she couldn't wait to have sex. She unknowingly put her cigarette in the wine and it burnt most of my eyebrows off. Again since I am tough and strong, I wasn't hurt. Also, since my hair is think and healthy, nothing happend to it. She then yelled, "Take it off! Take it all off!" So I went into my bathroom and shaved the rest off. I didn't have enough time to give my eyebrows a good shave because she was begging for me.

We were up until the morning since I am a stallion in bed and have lots of stamina. I took this picture of myself on my webcam since I didn't want to take out my expensive photography equipment. As you can see from the picture my bedroom is also well decorated. I am also naked in this picture!

Being both a bad boy and a nice guy is not a contradiction. I am an example of this. Since I am so generous, This is a thank you gift for Dianne. More people admire me and stare when I go out in public. I think it's because I have no eyebrows. They're attracted to my sex and bad boy appeal. After several hours in bed with Dianne, we cuddled and talked. Since I'm also a good listener, I learned that she wanted a Volks Wagon Jetta.
